During the second quarter of the current financial year, AHCL recorded a loss after tax of PKR 639.83 million (profit after tax for 2QFY17- PKR 976.19 million) on an unconsolidated basis, mainly on account of unrealized diminution on remeasurement of investment in Fatima Fertilizer Company Limited, an associate. However, on a consolidated basis, your Company has recorded a profit after tax for the second quarter amounting to PKR 138.47 million (profit after tax for 2QFY17- PKR 815.5 million).

Performance of Subsidiaries and Associates

Sachal Energy Development (Private) Limited's total production (including net delivered energy, shortfall energy and non-project missed volume) stands at 125,913 MWh as compared to Benchmark production of 113,548 MWh. High plant availability of 99.60% has been ensured as compared to benchmark value of 95% resulting in impressive profit after tax of Rs. 611.33 million. Securities brokerage subsidiary, Arif Habib Limited, recorded a loss after tax due to major decline of 59% in market traded volumes and of 55% in market traded values compared to first half year of FY17. Meanwhile, inflationary reading during the period suggested average CPI at 3.75% as compared to the same period last year which is well below the government's FY18 target of 6.00%. However, Current Account deficit remains the concern clocking to USD 7.41bn (4.4% of GDP) resulting in devaluation of Pak Rupee. On the equity front, the benchmark KSE-100 index declined by 13.09% or 6,094 points in Jul-Dec'17 led primarily by pressure on the external account, political apprehensions as well as foreign outflows (USD 155.17mn) post reclassification to the MSCI Emerging Market.

Future outlook

Financial services businesses are expected to remain strained in the short term. However we expect investee companies in the power, fertilizers, cement, steel and real estate sectors to perform soundly. On an overall basis, your Company is expected to do well.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Unconsolidated Financial Information (Unaudited)

For the six months period and quarter ended 31st December 2017

20. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosure require the measurement of fair values, for both financial, if any, and non-financial assets and financial liabilities.

Management engage independent external experts / valuers to carry out valuation of its non-financial assets (i.e. Investment Property) elected to be measured at fair value and financial assets where prices are not quoted or readily available in the market. Involvement of external valuers is decided upon by management. Selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, relevant experience, independence and whether professional standards are maintained.

When measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and uses observable market data as far as possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Fair values of financial assets that are traded in active markets are based on quoted market prices. For all other financial instruments the Company determines fair values using valuation techniques unless the fair value cannot be reliably measured.

Valuation techniques used by the Company include discounted cash flow model for valuation of unquoted equity securities. Assumptions and inputs used in valuation techniques include risk-free rates, bond and equity prices, foreign currency exchange rates, equity and equity index prices. The objective of valuation techniques is to arrive at a fair value determination that reflects the price of the financial instrument at the balance sheet date that would have been determined by market participants acting at arm's length.

Valuation models for valuing securities for which there is no active market requires significant unobservable inputs and a higher degree of management judgement and estimation in the determination of fair value. Management judgement and estimation are usually required for selection of the appropriate valuation model to be used, determination of expected future cash flows on the financial instrument being valued and selection of appropriate discount rates, etc.

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Unconsolidated Financial Information (Unaudited)

For the six months period and quarter ended 31st December 2017

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements at fair value on a recurring basis, management recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred. There were no transfers between different levels of fair values mentioned above.

20.1 The below table shows the carrying amounts and fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities including their levels in the fair value hierarchy for financial instruments measured at fair value. It does not include the fair value information of financial assets and financial liabilities not measured at fair value if the carrying amount is a reasonable approximation of fair value.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Unconsolidated Financial Information (Unaudited)

For the six months period and quarter ended 31st December 2017

* This include investment in a subsidiary company, Arif Habib Limited, which is quoted on the Pakistan Stock Exchange Limited. It is carried at cost and fair value is determined for disclosure purposes.

Management assessed that the fair values of long term deposit, loans, advances, trade receivables, other receivable, cash & cash equivalent, trade payables, short term borrowing and other current liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments. For long term deposit asset and long term liabilities, managements consider that their carrying values approximates fair value.

The fair value of quoted equity securities categorised in level 1 in fair value hierarchy is determined using quotation from the Pakistan Stock Exchange Limited on the reporting date. Unquoted equity securities measured at fair value is derived using discounted cash flow method. The valuation method considers the present value of future cash flows of investee company discounted with risk adjusted discount rate. The significant unobservable input comprises long-term growth rate, long-term return on equity and weighted average cost of capital. Changes in the input would increase or decrease the fair value of investee company.
